

Rivet Height Gage

Fowler/Bowers' new Electronic Depth-matic Rivet Gage — a new concept for measuring Rivet Heights.

Accurate measurements are achieved quickly and simply on the shop floor or in inspection. The large LCD display faces upward for convenient viewing from any angle.

Measuring Range 0—.5" (0—13mm).

- Switchable resolution .0005/.00005" or .01/.001mm.
- Large clear LCD display for easy reading.
- Direct RS-232C output.
- Two preset and reference memories.
- Handy pocket size. Ideal for the workshop.
- Min/Max/TIR and tolerance modes.
- Lift up plunger to place contacts over rivet head.
- Three hardened steel radius-shaped contact feet.
- 4-48 thread allows interchangeable contacts
- Allows rivet height checks on flat and curved surfaces.

